

Through Rebate programs offered by SMUD, We are offering a Home Energy Assessment for $99.

Leaky ducts, faulty insulation and problems with your A/C system can rob you of money and comfort at home.

SMUD's Home Performance Program mixes technology, building science and hard work to test your home's performance. If you want to address problems, rebates up to $5,000, tax incentives and financing options are available until funding is gone.

SMUD's Home Performance Program provides homeowners with the fundamental steps toward comfort, safety, and savings.

SMUD offers two options under the Home Performance Program: Comprehensive and Basic. As a SMUD-Qualified Energy Professional, GMC Contracting is offering an energy assessment for $99. This includes assessing your attic insulation, air infiltration, duct system performance, and conduct a safety inspection of the combustion appliances for safety issues.

SMUD offers financing at fixed interest rates. For more information on SMUD's financing program visit SMUD.org. Value $499.
